

A Candid Look At Financial & Government Institutions

I created Fiscal Nitty Gritty to help people understand the nature of financial institutions. I wanted to identify key fundamental economic and industry trends that demand organizations to rethink their models for doing business in the 21st century.

In my blog I share both my professional and personal experiences and give people an opportunity to communicate their ideas.

Please click on the link and let me know what you think.

Fiscal Nitty Gritty

Jay Cousins

President, The Cousins Group